

no mistake I will always be an Indian first."

Zubin Mehta

Music conductor 1936

Q: When did he make his conducting debut?

A: 1958, in Vienna

Q: When was he made music director for life of the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra?

A: In 1981

Q: Which record did he set as music director of the New York Philharmonic?

A: He had the longest tenure of 13 years, beginning in 1978

Q: How many concerts has he conducted?

A: Over 2,000

Q: Which award was he given by the United Nations?

A: The Lifetime Achievement Peace and Tolerance Award in 1999