

"Society presses upon us all the time. The progress

R.K. Narayan

Writer 1906-2001

Q: When did he shorten his name to R.K. Narayan?

A: In 1935, on Graham Greene's advice

Q: When was his first trip abroad?

A: In 1956, on being selected by the Rockefeller Foundation for a grant

Q: How many works of fiction did he author?

A: Fifteen novels and five volumes of short stories

Q: Which was his first published work?

A: A review of Development of Maritime Laws of 17th-century England

Q: Under what title was The English Teacher published in the US?

A: Grateful to Life and Death

BHAWAN SINGH