

"My ambition is to unfold the sources of India in

GUIDING

A noted educationist and a man of intellect, his role in the making of modern India validates the traditional Indian belief in the indispensability of the guru

S. Radhakrishnan

Visionary 1888-1975

Q: When was he knighted?

A: In 1931, when he became vice-chancellor of Andhra University

Q: Who was his favourite poet?

A: Rabindranath Tagore. He wrote a book on his philosophy.

Q: How did he shape the country's educational policy?

A: He served on UNESCO's executive board and as chairman of the University Education Commission

Q: Which is his most celebrated work?

A: An Idealist View of Life

Q: Which was his alma mater?

A: Madras Christian College, where he was initiated into philosophy