...SETTING NEW STANDARDS IN LEGAL EDUCATION

Legal Education in the new millennium needs to gear up itself to face the new challenges in the wake of global changes happening in economic, political and social settings. Such challenges demand the services of dedicated and professionally competent lawyers.

To strengthen the pillars of justice, equality and fair play, and inculcate values in education, NALSAR UNIVERSITY OF LAW has been set up. The University is established by Andhra Pradesh Act 34 of 1998 and is a residential University.

Prof. Ranbir Singh, Vice-Chancellor, NALSAR

The University has as its primary mission the creation of a generation of able, competent and humane lawyers who will not only enter the Bar and the Bench but also be equipped to address effectively the imperatives of the new millennium.

The University offers a 5-year integrated B.A., LL.B. (Hons.) degree programme, 2-year Post-Graduate degree LL.M., one year M.Phil. and a Ph.D. degree programme. Besides, Post-Graduate Diplomas in Patent Laws, Media Laws, Cyber Laws and International Humanitarian Law are organized under the Proximate Education Programme, including web-based instruction.
