

THREE SOME

She burst on the screen with Lucky Ali's video, Kabhi Aisa Lagta Hai, and became every ad director's favourite fix. But Nisha Rawal, the Chanda ki doli girl, will soon make her 70 mm debut opposite Jimmy Shergill in Tony Juneja's Hastey Hastey as a young student in New York. But one is just not enough for her. She has just finished shooting for Tarun Kumar's Rafoo Chakkar and also plays the lead in Jack and Jhol. Will she get three times lucky?

Gut Feeling

As the Leander Paes-Mahesh Bhupathi saas-bahu style saga goes into yet another tiring episode, Somdev DevVarman is a breath of fresh and clean air. The 23-year-old from Tripura won the US premier collegiate tennis title, the NCAA singles championships, for the second straight year, playing for the University of Virginia. No better time to turn pro.

Clear Style

There must be something about Rakhi Parekh Patil that made Bipasha Basu choose her over buddy boy Rocky S for her look in Freeze. Patil, who's styled for the Kingfisher calendar, worked with Basu on the Clinic All Clear print ad. She says the actress liked her ideas. "Bipasha plays a deejay so her look is very street, very young, very now, very casual yet edgy," says the 30-year-old who makes her Bollywood debut with this film. We're keeping our style meters ready for this one.

ROAD TO ROAM

Ashutosh Kaushik, the abrasive dhaba owner from Saharanpur may have won the bike and the moolah on Roadies 5.0 but it's Delhi girl Shambhvi Sharma who's landed a lead role with Suniel Shetty's Popcorn Entertainment. She's been signed by Shetty and Ekta Kapoor in the Joy Augustine-directed The Little Godfather. "I've always loved the camera. But I'm taking it one day at a time," says the 19-year-old law student. This girl's road trip has just begun.
