

ANAND MAHINDRA

51, INDUSTRIALIST (7)

EASY RIDER

BECAUSE his group's market capitalisation has shot up to over Rs 40,000 crore this year. Because amidst the storm over SEZs, his zone in Chennai is quietly sold out and the one in Jaipur, spread over 3,000 acre, is nearly booked. Because his middle-class time-share business, Mahindra Holidays, started with a small sum of Rs 30 crore in 1997, has now been valued at over Rs 4,000 crore. Because his auto components outfit Systech will notch a billion dollars in sales and a billion in market cap by 2009, a year ahead of schedule.

NEXT BIG MOVE:
Into aerospace engineering and executive aircraft manufacture through Systech.

STILL TRAVELS ON:
Commercial airlines.

IS PROUD OF: The

170-acre bio-diversity park created at Mahindra World University in Pune.

PERSONAL GOAL:
To fund education for 1,00,000 girls by the year-end.

K.V. KAMATH

61, BANKER (NEW)

THE CONSIGLIERE

BECAUSE he runs the largest private sector bank in India with deposits of Rs 2,30,000 crore. Because ICICI, with advances worth Rs 2,15,500 crore, is the country's largest private lender. Because ICICI Bank is the largest retail lender with advances of over Rs 1,32,300 crore which gives it over 30 per cent of the market share. Because the group is the largest private insurance player. Because its mutual fund business now has over Rs 64,000 crore of assets under management. Because it raised $5 billion through a public issue in India and abroad, the biggest by a bank till now. Because it has been able to transform and deliver on the promise of a thoroughly modern bank.

BIG MILESTONE:
Launch of ICICI Bank's operations in the US.

FAVOURITE MANTRA:
"I think it can be done."

CURRENT PASSION:
Has set up campus programmes in B-schools to train to-be-graduates.

IS ALWAYS LOOKING FOR: Technological solutions to improve productivity.

SUNDAYS ARE FOR: Soccer or Formula One racing.

FROM CORPORATES TO CHIEF MINISTERS, ALL TURN TO HIM FOR FINANCIAL ADVICE.

NO ONE CAN WORK A ROOM BETTER THAN HIM, WHETHER AT HARVARD OR DAVOS.
