

ADITYA CHOPRA

37, PRODUCER (14)

THE FIRST MOGUL

BECAUSE at a time when stars are dancing to their own tune in Bollywood, his studio can set the music. Because even when his studio's five films made Rs 225 crore at the box office in 2007, it was considered a bad year. Because whether it is an in-house television division or an Internet segment, what YashRaj Films does yesterday, Bollywood does today. Because only he can pay Shah Rukh Khan Rs 3.5 crore for a movie and get away with it. Because even though he is Bollywood's most reclusive man, he made it to the front pages of tabloids for his rumoured alliance with Rani Mukherji.

CURRENT OBSESSION:

Scouring TV, magazines, even calendars for a new girl opposite Shah Rukh Khan in Rab Ne Bana Di Jodi—his first directorial film in eight years.

IS PARTICULAR ABOUT:

His weight. Works out every day at his gym at home or in the studio. Doesn't let his father Yash Chopra indulge his sweet tooth.

HE NEVER MISSES A NARRATION TO A STAR BY HIS DIRECTORS.

22 PRANNOY AND RADHIKA ROY

58, MEDIA BARONS (26)

TWO OF A KIND

BECAUSE the prime minister has to hang around on stage while Prannoy schmoozes with winners at his news channel's annual awards show. Because the first couple of newsdom now wants to be an entertainment powerhouse. Because US conglomerate NBC has shown confidence in their vision by picking up a 26 per cent stake for Rs 600 crore in their entertainment network. Because despite losing stars to rival newschannels, they still put their performers first. Because they still find time to check spellings on TV tickers and change the colour of a virtual set.

SHOULD BE

EMBARRASSED ABOUT:

NDTV Imagine, a clone of DD's national network.

PAST LIVES: He was economic advisor in the finance ministry. She was a speech pathologist at AIIMS, Delhi, with training from Oldrey Fleming School, London.

SMART GUY MOVE: He has been appointed to the advisory board of the think-tank, Council For Foreign Relations.