

For unreliable home security, there's theft insurance.
For unreliable commodity prices, there's MCX.

Whatever threat you may face, chances are you have the option of insuring against it. But what about your business? Is it protected against the singular and constant threat of fluctuating commodity prices? Commodity exchanges provide the opportunity to hedge against this price uncertainty by offering a transparent platform where buyers and sellers can lock-in a mutually acceptable price and protect themselves from unfavourable price movements. It's an assurance your business can't do without. At MCX, we are proud to provide it.

sms MCX to 57333
call 1800-22-9444
or 022-4003 6990

Hedge in the futures market on

MCX

India's No.1 Commodity Exchange

A Financial Technologies Group Company

MCX is India's No.1 commodity exchange. Source: FMC website (www.fmc.gov.in) based on turnover in terms of value for FY 07. Multi Commodity Exchange of India Limited proposes, subject to receipt of requisite approvals, market conditions and other considerations, to make an initial public offer of its equity shares and has filed a draft red herring prospectus ("DRHP") with the Securities and Exchange Board of India ("SEBI"). The DRHP is available on SEBI website at www.sebi.gov.in as well as on the websites of the book running lead managers at www.dspl.com, www.citibank.co.in, www.jmfinancial.in, www.kotak.com and www.enam.com. Investors should note that investment in equity shares involves a high degree of risk and for details relating to the same, see the section titled "Risk Factors" of the aforementioned offer document.