

in the city

Click clique

Photoink, a six-year-old photo agency and publication design studio, has started its first gallery in Delhi. The 3,500 sq ft gallery, technically equipped to present both contemporary and vintage photographic works, will showcase 'Anglo

PHOTOINK

At: 1 Faiz Road, Ground Floor, Jhandewalan. Ph: 28755940.

Indians', an exhibition on the works of shutterbug Dileep Prakash, from March 13 onwards. Though Photoink mainly seeks to provide a professional platform for photography, the space will also be used to host art shows.

Soothe your senses

Pamper yourself with luxurious massages and body treatments, or get your hair styled the latest way, at Tamaya—a salon, wellness centre and spa. While the spa offers treatments like the sabai stone therapy, (a Thai massage with granite stones) and an aromatic anti-fatigue moor mud treatment, the salon has caviar treatments for both men and women. Tamaya claims to use products from Pevonia Botanica, which don't contain harmful additives or alcohol. Annual membership is Rs 80,000 per person.

TAMAYA

At: Jaypee Vasant Continental, Basant Lok, Vasant Vihar. Ph: 26148800.

For a beautiful you

A+Medispa from the house of Amatraa combines modern science and ayurveda to give customised solutions for all beauty woes. Sprawled over an area of 18,000 sq ft, the spa specialises in cosmetic dermatology, aesthetic surgery, cosmetic dentistry, holistic purification and ayurveda. Be it problems related to excessive acne or cellulite, the centre's experts claim to have a cure. Price: Rs 2,000 onwards.

A + MEDISPA

At: Plot no A, Basant Lok, Community Centre, Vasant Vihar. Ph: 46075757.

New launches

WE PICK OUT THE BEST NEW PLACES FOR YOU TO INDULGE YOUR SENSES

Italian delight

Having found a fan following in Mumbai, where it started in 2005, this Italian restaurant, which has celeb chef Bill Marchetti as its consultant, opened recently in Delhi. While the mushroom cappuc-cino soup and the vodka penne pasta are catching the favour of diners, pizza lovers are gorging on wafer thin pizzas, which are surprisingly filling. For dessert, try the chef's special—extra creamy tiramisu. With a soon-to-open bar and private dining sections, the crowd is expected to grow. Meal for two: Rs 1,500.

SPAGHETTI KITCHEN

At: Second floor, Select City Walk, Saket. Ph: 42658430.