Walk Tall

At Moolchand we are committed to creating a better world. We believe that doing the right thing right! Caring at Moolchand provide a chance to do extraordinary work in an environment driven by something more than money- helping others, striving for excellence and creating a world leader in healthcare services. At Moolchand talent can take some things for granted. And Walk Tall!

An empowering platform: We aspire to be global leaders and do not settle for mediocrity. Our hallmark 'meritocratic' and open work culture provides challenging and interesting work opportunities to learn, grow and excel. With us you work hard, work smart and grow fast.

Growth everyday: Having an expansive canvas with time tested values, our apprenticeship model of learning helps you stretch yourself and enables you to emerge as a business leader. We comply with global standards and follow best practices while giving you an opportunity to prosper and create your own distinctive niche.

An enabling environment: We realize that collaboration is a crucial ingredient to creating pre-eminent institutions. We follow an open door policy to encourage debate, ensure innovation and leverage technology to drive productivity. We provide constructive feedback to help you grow.

Inspirational values: For us, healthcare is not a 'business' but a vehicle to 'make a difference' and create a better world. We have a legacy of integrity and values. Our philanthropic endeavors, for instance, have touched 4 million lives to date. Making Moolchand a place you can proudly belong to.

Real rewards: Our 'performance culture' focuses on rewarding 'merit'. You can count on attractive merit based remuneration, global exposure and professional freedom. Through our training and development initiatives, we invest in people who dream of making a difference.

An employer who stands by you: At Moolchand, every employee is thought of, considered and cared for like a family. We understand that life has its ups and downs. In times of personal and professional crisis you can count on us being by your side.

We are looking for people with a can do spirit, a passion for excellence and a track record of achievement and leadership. If this sounds like you and you want to "Walk Tall!" call the Moolchand Recruitment team at +91 99104 46776 or visit www.moolchandhealthcare.com/careers
