Recurrent Note

BANGALORE, MUMBAI

Remember Kenny G, of the lustrous curly hair fame, swaying with a saxophone in hand? Presented by Black Dog, which is celebrating its 125th anniversary with this concert, the recording artiste and soprano saxophone player will now play in India for the first time. Most of us who had not heard of Kenny G in India until now will surely recognise his compositions, which television channels have been using as background scores in their programmes and presentations and also telecom service providers as caller tunes.

The singer is also here to promote his latest best-selling album, Rhythm and Romance, which is an amalgamation of latino music and his classic signature style. The album includes his performances with Latin musicians like Alex Acuna (drums), Ramon Stagnaro (guitar), John Pena (Bass), Michito Sanchez (percussion), Enrique Martinez (accordion), Nathan East (bass), Paulino Da Costa (percussion), Walter Afanasiëff (piano), guest vocalists Barbara Munoz and Spanish-speaking pop and rock sensation Camila.

The 51-year-old artiste, whose real name is Kenneth Gorelick, is 25th in the list of the best-selling artistes in America. Having been in the music industry for over 27 years, with global sales of over 75 million albums, including both singles and videos, Kenny G has won many awards, including the Grammy, American Music, Soul Train, World Music and NAACP Image Awards. In 1997, he earned a place in the Guinness Book of World Records for playing the longest note ever recorded on a saxophone—he held an E-Flat for 45 minutes and 12 seconds.

He will perform in both cities with a five-member ensemble, comprising a guitarist, a percussionist, a drummer and a pianist. A perfect feast for music lovers. On May 11 at Taj Lands End in Mumbai and on May 12 at UB City, Bangalore.

Flow of Inspiration

MUMBAI Life as an extension of nature is the theme that artist Sanjay Kumar dabbles in. Presenting a culmination of images and impulses that awaken the mind to see life as an integral part of nature, Kumar says: "I have tried to explore life for my physical and metaphysical quest with nature as my guide. I transform the energy of emotions into consolidated images of reality, charged with the musical sound of colours and forms." The artist believes that he cannot translate his thoughts on to the canvas until he feels the flow of inspiration—"the fire of emotions that pushes me up towards the ecstasy of realisation". The inspiration, Kumar explains, flows down from his unconscious mind into a state of consciousness—just like the unrestricted flow of a river. The exhibition, Time's Time is available for view at the Museum Art Gallery from May 5. by Swati Mathur
