

■ By Stephen David

When Anasuya Shetty, from village Ira in Mangalore district, began a movement against plastic, she did not credit either Greenpeace or the UN for it. Shetty was among the 1,000-odd householders in the region to be swept into the spirited self-help movement, Apna Desh, which encouraged people to take up leadership

people TREE

✱ Bharat Lal Meena, 51

PROJECT Helping people help themselves

Can-do Icon Great revolutions have begun with small workable ideas just like micro-financing, whose pioneer is Nobel Prize winner Muhammad Yunus

Nearly 600 villages have become a part of the Apna Desh movement

