

■ By Elora Sen

A young boy setting off for school in the morning, a satchel on his back, is not an unusual sight in Howrah's crowded bylanes. But what set this little man apart was his quiet determination as he carried with him a bundle of paper bags his mother had made, which he had to sell to ensure the day's ration. His corporation

courting GREEN

★ Subash Dutta, 59

Project Saving
Kolkata's
environment

Can-do Motto I am not a man of huge merit, but have complete conviction in my honesty and dedication

67 is the number of PILs on environmental issues that Dutta has filed in courts

