

Show Stopper

Prachi Desai's small-to-big screen move had been the talk of the town for quite some time now. But the promo of Rock On, which also marks Farhan Akhtar's debut as an actor, suggests otherwise. It's actor Shahana Goswani, 22, who plays Arjun Rampal's wife in the film, who is the real show stealer. "It's a story about past and present and I'm the only one there at both times," says Goswani, who's earlier acted in Yun Hota Toh Kya Hota. But where is Ms Desai hiding?

India Calling

This one's a real twist in the tale. Usually Bollywood girls make a beeline for the West for films, but 23-year-old Gita Soto left London to be in Mumbai. This British theatre artiste has been signed as the lead in Ishant Trivedi's 40% Star where she plays the role of a half-Brit and half-Indian girl. "I had auditioned for a smaller part but I was thrilled when producer Ravi Agarwal offered me the lead," says Soto, who has already got Raja Sen's Bengali film in her kitty. Namaste India, what say?

SMALL WONDER

She may be pint-sized but Chitrashi Rawat left a big impact with her role as the hockey pro and motormouth Komal Chautala in Chak De!. Rawat has now left the field and also her pixie locks behind for flowing tresses, flirty dresses and three Hindi films. Among a host of other Bollywood stars in Madhur Bhandarkar's Fashion, the actor from Dehradun plays a model coordinator. She has also bagged a role in Soham Shah's Luck and Don't Worry Be Happy, opposite Rajpal Yadav. Nice goal.

TWO TO TANGO

Aishwarya Rai has tough competition. Always arm-in-arm hubby Abhishek Bachchan has a new girl, item girl that is. Model and VJ Pia Trivedi, who's shaken her booty with the actor once before in Bluffmaster, has the Junior B all to herself in an item song in Apoorva Lakhia's Mission Istanbul. The song features just before the climax and Lakhia says Pia was chosen because she's classy and sexy. "We were a little apprehensive because she'd already done a song with Abhishek before, but we realised in that she had a very small part so we chose her," says Lakhia. Nice move, eh.

SHUTS THE BIGGEST MOUTHS.

THE BIG MINT.
