

In Singapore, the festivities never end. This holiday season, enjoy grand concerts and breathtaking musicals by some of the finest entertainers in the world or just stop by a street corner for some spirited caroling. Spend your evenings at a chic nightclub, a romantic restaurant, a fancy bar or all three. Shop till midnight on Orchard Road or dance till the wee hours of the morning at the Sentosa beach party. In this vibrant city, there is something for everyone.

Fairy-tale Christmas light-up & free Hippo bus tour ▶

Stroll down Orchard Road and enter a magical world of fantasy. Gaze at the world's most spectacular light-up as it brings alive a long forgotten fairy tale. Hop aboard the free, open-top Hippo bus and retrace Prince Noel's journey as he searches for his one true love, Princess Ballerina. Adorned with shimmering chandeliers, enchanted harps and a magical carousel, the 5-km shopping stretch of Orchard Road abounds with shops that welcome you to soak in the festivities and indulge your loved ones.

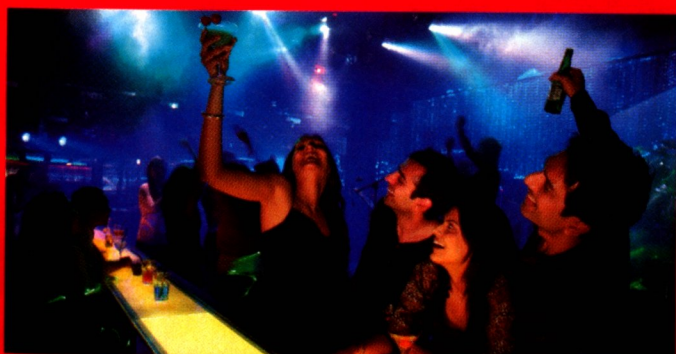

◀ Festive Shopping

This holiday season, take home more than just memories. Shop till you drop at the renowned designer stores on Orchard Road or get fantastic deals on your favourite brands at the grand sales in the malls. Select stores that remain open till late night on Saturdays, prove to be a marvelous boon for last-minute buyers and shopaholics, while the numerous lucky draws and festive promotions make the experience an absolute delight.

Exciting Entertainment ▶

Renowned performers, from across the globe, keep you entertained in Singapore. Enter a whimsical world of snowflakes, candy and breathtaking choreography with the greatest Christmas classic of all times - The Nutcracker (13th - 16th Dec. '07) or fasten your seat belts for the action-packed, musical adventure, Chitty Chitty Bang Bang (2nd Nov. - 9th Dec. '07). You may also just stroll down the streets of Singapore and watch them come alive as carolers break into song or artists re-enact the story of Nativity.

◀ Pulsating Nightlife

As the sun sets in Singapore, the temperatures soar. Turn on the heat and let your hair down at Singapore's annual dance-music festival, Zoukout (8th Dec. '07) or usher in the New Year under a canopy of stars at the Siloso beach party on Sentosa or just head to Clarke Quay and make merry into the wee hours of the morning at the legendary OneMusicOneCountdown. In Singapore, the options are many and the night's always young, to keep you company while you count down to 2008.

Contact your travel agent now! For a list of Santa's recommendations log on to visitsingapore.com/in