NATION: DELIMITATION

BANDEEP SINGH

New Groundrules 19

Several well-entrenched parliamentarians are likely to be turfed out of their traditional strongholds if the delimitation panel's recommendations come into effect before the next polls.

DIASPORA: INDIANS IN MALAYSIA

Fighting for Identity

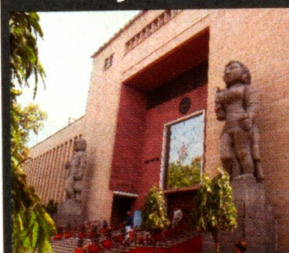

Ethnic Indians marginalised by the Bhumiputra policy of successive Malaysian governments over the years now demand a fair share of the nation's wealth.

48

Borrowers heave a sigh of relief as the Reserve Bank of India restrains collection agents from using strong-arm tactics.

SPORTS: ICL

A League in Making 75

The ICL masters cricket logistics but the real test will be to win television audiences and the market.

ARTS&ENTERTAINMENT: BOLLYWOOD

India at the Movies 88

Small towns prefer pirated DVDs, while 15-34-year-olds throng theatres—television makes much more money than its shinier cousin.
