

The Good Looks Zone will give you ideas for quick makeovers, what kind of make-up works best on you, what is the most convenient hairstyle that you can sport, skin care made easy and what are the best outfits for any occasion. Top beauty, grooming, and hairstyling experts will be at hand to proffer their advice and help you look your best.

GOOD looks

GOOD food

At the Good Food Zone, you are invited to sample delicious foods, and learn the many ways that you can bring a quick and nutritious meal together from renowned chefs and food experts, how to whip up low-calorie snacks and soups, mastering various cooking techniques (for those of us who are yet to learn), and the delicate art of dessert-making.

The Good Health Zone addresses the health concerns of the modern woman. Here you will find easy-to-do exercises from fitness experts for you to do at home. How to detoxify and rejuvenate your system, alternative therapies such as yoga and aromatherapy, how to delay the onset of serious lifestyle diseases, and even pet care tips.

GOOD health

GOOD deals

The Good Deals Zone makes available to you the best discounts and deals on various products. Participate in bids and auctions; you never know what bargains may be in store for you!

GOOD home

In the Good Home Zone, you will get a first-hand feel of innovative décor and maintenance ideas for your home, such as lighting ideas, how to style your bathroom, how to keep your home sparkling clean. In short all you need to transform your home from drab to fab.

GOOD family

The Good Family Zone offers out-of-the-box yet practical advice via a panel of in-house experts, and fun activities and contests to help women bond better with their families. We have counseling for your teenager, relationship advice for you and your mother-in-law, tips on how to start your own business, and much more.