

CHOICE HOTELS

INDIA

Some environments demand control. Some set you free.

Even control freaks need a breather sometimes. Just so that they can get on with the business of living fully.

Just as millions across the world do, by picking a Choice hotel each time they travel.

Profiting not just from the charm of the destination, but also from the international standards of living that come with each stay.

Choose from over 30 Choice hotels in India, in over 20 destinations, whenever you next travel.

You'll agree, not having to worry about some things can help you organize others better.
