

The Sand Dunes Suddenly Spring to Life In magical Colours, Sounds & Creativity

You wouldn't want to miss Desert Festival, Jaisalmer 19-21 February, 2008

The tranquil desert dunes in front of the grand Jaisalmer Fort and Sam spring to life every February with a 3-day fête called the Desert Festival. It is a mesmerising fusion of open-air folk dance performances, acrobatics, puppet shows and an array of engaging festivities.

Highlights

- Captivating Fire, Gair, Ghoomar and other Rajasthani folk dances • Folk music • Participative and entertaining competitions like Turban tying, Mr. Desert, Ms. Moomal, Matka race etc • Camel race • Camel polo & Dance shows • Camel tattoo show by BSF.

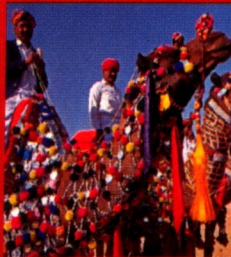

Upcoming Fairs & Festivals

Camel Festival

BIKANER

(21 – 23 January, 2008)

- Colourful procession of performing artists, bedecked camels and horses
- Visit to Junagarh Fort • Camel races, camel decorations, camel milking, fur cut design and best breed competitions • Camel acrobatics and camel bands • Fire & Gair dance • Dazzling fireworks • Shopper's delight - art, craft and cuisine • Paratropping by Airforce.

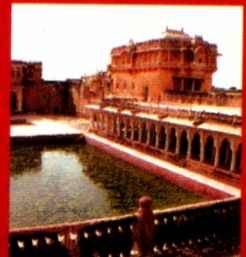

Nagaur Fair

NAGAU

(13 – 16 February, 2008)

- Traditional Ram Deoji Cattle Fair
- Camel trading • Asia's largest red chilly market • Adventure sports, competitions & amusements • Folk musical evenings • Horse cart races • Celebrity cultural nights • Swiss Tent Camping Facilities • Food court.

Rajasthan... The Incredible State of India

Tourism Department, Government Hostel, M.I. Road, Jaipur - 1, Ph. No.: + 91+141-5110594-8, Fax: + 91+141-5110593

www.rajasthantourism.gov.in

For Details Contact: Jaisalmer: 02992-252406, Bikaner: 0151-2226701, Ajmer (for Nagaur Fair): 0145-2627426, Ahmedabad: 079-26469580, New Delhi: 011-23389525, 23383837, Mumbai: 022-22075603, Kolkata: 033-22132740, Chennai: 044-25365554