SOLA TOPEE

"Kol Hal ???!!..." Was often the familiar ring heard when the Burra Sahib returned home from yet another torrid, hot, sultry day at work, usually from the tea plantations or the forest ranges. Picture him then, entering his tent, discarding his life-saving Sola Topee on the nearby hat-stand and positioning himself in his "planter's chair", whilst the faithful Man Friday hands him his cooler beverage and busies himself to the task of relieving the Master's shoes.

Welcome to Sola Topee!...the restaurant resplendent with images of the British Raj...or somewhat. Located in the Lobby Level of Tower "C" Global Business Park, Mehrauli-Gurgaon Road, Gurgaon, Haryana, this 45-seat restaurant seeks to capture the gist of one such Burra Sahib's residential environment ... the ubiquitous tent housing from which these representatives of the British Raj played out an important role in furthering The Empire's Global Grand Plans.

In today's world the memories of a now-famous song from the film "Pakeezah" probably best immortalizes the tented accommodation theme as we come to know of it. Sola Topee seeks to impart that flavour of time, wherein the cuisine was as much Indian as we know it today. Be it the succulent kababs, tawa items, curries or the mouth-watering biryanis, there is also on offer the timeless fare of soups, grilled salmon; chicken and lamb steaks or the freshly-caught sole in mustard sauce done over a slow fire! This for those aficionados wishing to travel the passage of time and re-live the Burra Sahib's "day in the life..." The unique tandoori broccoli, paneer roll more than provide for a delectable vegetarian selection.

In our quest to continue marry the old with the new, our ebullient Executive Chef, Umesh Mattoo chooses to adopt the well traveled path of innovation and is preparing to honour tradition with his selection of "Mutton Rara", "Tawa Meat", as well as a personal favourite "Aaloo Methi Sprout with potatoes" dishes.

Our locational advantage within the heart of the Corporate set-up prompts Sola Topee to prepare a wide array of Take Away items such as Kathi Rolls, Fried Fish Amritsari, Chicken Pakoras, Stuffed paranthas; spicy cocktail mince and vegetable samosas, not to mention the now-famous Mince Cutlets reminiscent of that very famous, and "pucca" institution - St. Stephen's College, Delhi!

From the distinctive façade makeover, to the typical writing table complete with the tak-a-tak typewriter, to the library, to the very essential Bar tucked away in the corner and the walls adorned with many a Tiger hunt of the Sahibs and their Memsahibs, Sola Topee has it all. Experience a journey through time, and a gastronomic feast like no other in this part of town.
