

■ Smile with CRY

Buried even before seeing daylight and homeless without even living in one. This is the story of millions of children in India, whose faces, CRY brought a smile on. A non-profit organisation moved by this reality, CRY - Child Rights and You, exists to amplify the voice of these children. Always ensuring children their due. Those, they are entitled to as citizens, enlisted by the Human Rights Commission. Over the years CRY has reached out to the underprivileged children through its various services, from giving them a home and most importantly a school. They also enabled parents of children, who are poverty stricken, a means to let their kids have proper education, food and a shelter. Caring they did, but not alone. It was the whole hearted support of many-a-small scale NGO and above all, millions of people like you. In over 2500 villages and slums across 18 States, they have made transformational change possible. And what more, they have made communities aware of their rights and the root cause that keep them hungry, illiterate, exploited and abused. Causes like gender, caste, livelihoods and displacement. Seeing their unconditional efforts many organizations lent their support for the cause. Archies joined hands with CRY to give this social cause a new dimension. Being a leader in the social expression category, Archies introduced greeting cards designed by these little children. These cards are unique and have given people something special to wish with. It has become the most appreciated greeting card in its category. People feel a sense of pride in greeting their loved ones with these cards. They are happy to simultaneously express their love for their dear ones and concern for the underprivileged children as well. So, each time you buy a CRY greeting card you know how many little faces just glow up with a smile.

if you love chinese

Berco's - a name that has today become synonymous with the most delicious Chinese and Thai Cuisine in the capital. The oriental journey of this chain started way back in 1982 with the first outlet in the heart of the city Connaught Place. Since then there has been no looking back. Today, all eight restaurants in the chain cater to packed houses through the day, be it the throbbing commercial district or the university area, the up market residential neighbourhoods to malls, the same success story is replayed all over the city in DLF, Noida, Kamla Nagar, Pitam Pura, Janak Puri, Vaishali, and Preet Vihar.

Berco's goes all nine yards when it comes to their offering which extends from: a starter, soups, main course, deserts, to meal combos, signature dishes and drinks, the spread is truly awe-inspiring. Crispy Lamb, Mongolian Chicken and the all time favourite Hot 'n Sour top the list of 'most wanted'! Veggie lovers can gorge on Crispy Chilly Potatoes and Stir Fried Vegetables, which are absolutely irresistible. Needless to say that the famed Berco's Fruit Beer is an all time favourite with young and old alike.

Berco's has always believed in providing its customers the healthiest and most hygienic food prepared with the finest ingredients. Superior quality food and service are high on their agenda. To quote the Managing Director Mr Kabir Advani "Our USP is the trust that our customers have in us, that, we would give them the best quality food and value for every penny that they spend, which is why our customers have been coming back to us for the past 25 years!"

The latest feather in their cap was the opening of the Gurgaon outlet in sector 53, Central Plaza Mall. This new restaurant has seating capacity of 130 people. A rooftop piece of art, this new venue has a hidden treasure of a beautiful terrace seating arrangement around an exotic little water body surrounded by bamboos and whistling chimes. Also, in Preet Vihar which have seating capacity of 80 people with Bar.

As the New Year knocks on the door, Berco's is getting ready to treat their valued customers to an exciting series of Oriental Food Festivals and mouth watering delicacies from Burma, Singapore, Indonesia and Japan! So be there this festive season to pamper your taste buds and feel the warmth of their hospitality.
