People who matter

"I was in favour of the deal with some reservations, but the vote of confidence is another matter. This vote will decide the timing of the next elections."

AJIT SINGH, President, Rashtriya Lok Dal 3

"We haven't taken a decision on the deal for the simple reason that we are not briefed about its advantages or disadvantages. UPA has not reached out to me."

OMAR ABDULLAH, President, National Conference 2

"We need to know what the terms and conditions of the deal are. As for the trust vote, the Congress has not contacted me and I have to discuss this with my party."

MAMATA BANERJEE, Chairperson, Trinamool Congress 1

"We will vote in favour of UPA, if PMO declares that the preparation for the formation of Telangana has begun and the prime minister himself gives a firm assurance."

K. CHANDRASEKHAR RAO, President, TRS 3

"I am too small a man for UPA to contact me. Our party has not debated the nuclear deal and its implications, and I have not yet applied my mind to the vote."

H.D. DEVE GOWDA, President, JD(S) 2

"We are not happy with the UPA and neglect of Ladakh. Anyway, nobody has approached us from the government but our party will discuss this and decide."

THUPSTAN CHHEWANG, Independent MP, Ladakh, J&K 1

"The deal is not acceptable in the present form. But we will decide after due debate because we are in a coalition with many parties, including NCP and BJP."

W. WANGYUH KONYAK, MP, Nagaland People's Front 1

"We will consider all issues, including assembly elections in November. The Congress is our main opposition, so we will need to deliberate on this."

VANLALZAWMA, MP, Mizo National Front 1
