

BANDEEP SINGH

COVER STORY: AMAR SINGH

THE MIDDLEMAN 24

As the Left parties withdraw support to the UPA Government, a desperate Congress turns to Samajwadi Party leader Amar Singh for survival. Can the wily power broker succeed?

STATES: KERALA

Back to Square One 40

The renewed sparring between the Congress and the Left could jeopardise projects worth crores cleared by the Centre even as it puts the IUML in a quandry as its support to the UPA would alienate its core Muslim constituency.

BUSINESS&ECONOMY: STOCK MARKETS

Buy Bucks

44

With several companies announcing share buy-backs, investors need to understand the motives of the promoters and distinguish between genuine value enhancement and blatant ramping up of share prices.

CRIME: AARUSHI MURDER CASE

Unfinished Life 50

Aarushi would have been a bright teenager balancing school and friends. But now she's just a shorthand for one of the most lurid crimes, which does not look like being solved.

DIPLOMACY: KABUL BLAST

Return of Mistrust 48

Dialogue between India and Pakistan may be hit, as Afghanistan alleges the ISI hand behind the Kabul blast and India cancels security talks.

SPORTS: OLYMPIC CONTENDERS

Champions Inc. 62

Private enterprise puts its weight behind finest athletes, giving them opportunities to succeed on the world stage.
