STATESCAN: ANDHRA PRADESH

A PRABHAKAR RAO

The Wild Goose Chase

Andhra Pradesh's former Congress committee president K. Keshava Rao is in an unenviable position today. His son Venkat Rao is being questioned in connection with the death of one of his friends B. Prashanth Reddy at his house under mysterious circumstances. Venkat claims Reddy had committed suicide but he does not have any evidence to prove this. The case has been handed over to the state crime department, reports Senior Editor Amarnath K. Menon.

WEB FEATURE: BIHAR MOB JUSTICE

The Law of the Hand

Bihar seems to have adopted a new justice system—for the people, by the people. Three such cases have been reported within the past one week alone. The latest being irate villagers lynching 10 alleged thieves to death. The situation has worsened due to distrust in police and the judicial system, says Correspondent Amitabh Srivastava.

WEB EXTRA: STUDENT POLITICS IN UP

Elections Vetoed

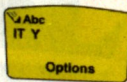

Widespread criminalisation of student politics in the Lucknow University has taken a toll on the freedom of students in the entire state with the Mayawati Government's decision to ban elections in colleges. Despite the Lyngdoh Committee recommendations, the chief minister has refused to relent, reports Assistant Editor Subhash Mishra.
