

HEY RAM!

THE BUZZ OF THE WEEK

Private broadcasters seem to have won the war over the Broadcasting Services Regulation Bill. Despite a number of fake sting operations on television, the I&B minister has given up on trying to make this Bill an Act.

VOICES

"We need to tell the Muslims that we are not close to the US, China or Russia. We are only close to the people of the country."

Kapil Sibal, Union minister for Science and Technology

"Congress or BJP do not mind joining hands with the BSP for capturing power in Uttar Pradesh, but they won't spare any efforts in describing BSP as a castiest party."

Mayawati, Uttar Pradesh chief minister

"We want the Government to run for five years. The life of Parliament should be for five years. If a no-confidence motion is moved, a confidence motion should also be placed."

Ram Vilas Paswan, Lok Janshakti Party president

"Terrorism was an unfortunate period in the history of Punjab that retarded the process of development in the state from which we have not yet been able to recoup."

Parkash Singh Badal, Punjab chief minister

"The T20 will help breed a lot of mediocre batsmen, a lot of sloggers. The great batsmen in Sachin, Sourav and Ponting will see others with no depth competing for their space."

Javagal Srinath, former cricketer
