

Steamy Affair

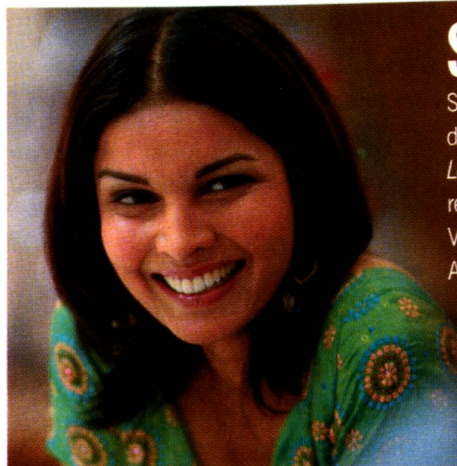

Even as the world debates whether they are a couple or not, Bipasha Basu will soon be seen gyrating to a steamy number Phook de with John Abraham for Anurag Kashyap's No Smoking. And while Basu insists she did the number for Vishal Bharadwaj, who has composed the film's music and hopes to recreate the Beedi magic, it seems the duo, who are tight-lipped on the status of their relationship, are letting their sizzling chemistry speak for itself. Like they say, there's no smoke without fire.

FOTOCORP

Sin-tillating

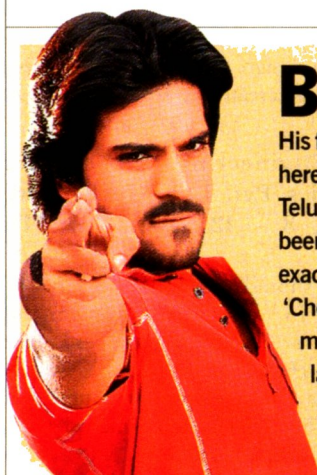

She plays a sexy Bollywood aspirant who doesn't speak Hindi in Manish Acharya's Loins of Punjab Presents. But not many recall Seema Rahmani from her debut in Vinod Pande's erotic thriller Sins. The Los Angeles based actor had then valiantly defended her topless shots and smooching scenes in the film. Says Pande, "She did the job with sincerity and is an uncompromising actor." But you know what they say about sins of the past.

FOTOCORP

SONG AND JOKE

Comedian Navin Prabhakar, 32, had everyone rolling in aisles with his comic impersonation of a female bar dancer on Star One's The Great Indian Laughter Challenge. His trademark 'Paichan Kon' will now become the title of his debut music album, which, packed with 25 minutes of stand-up comedy, promises to be as much fun as his one-liners. "The album has all the ingredients to make people laugh their hearts out. I want the audience to know me as an artist and not just as a comedian," he says. And this time he isn't joking.

BABY'S DAY OUT

His father's towering presence in Tollywood notwithstanding, here is a screen scion all set to make a confident debut. Telugu megastar Chiranjeevi's son Ram Charan Teja, 22, has been launched in a romantic film Chirutha. And he isn't exactly a chip off the old block, at least in front of the camera. 'Cherry', who is attempting to break free of his father's mould, says, "Being a star's son will give you a good launchpad. Success, though, depends on talent for nothing comes easy." And with his fansites springing up by the dozen, success can't be far behind.

Pooja ke liye...

(Ya phir) Shefali, Sharmila, Neena, Rashmi...

NEW

mint-o

Fresh

mint-o Fresh COOL GREEN