Khajuraho

A World Heritage site, Khajuraho is truly sublime and sensuous. 1000 years ago, the Chandela Rajput kings built 85 temples here, richly carved with erotic sculptures. Only 22 remain today to constitute one of the world's great artistic wonders. Awe-inspiring indeed! Much like the tigers at Panna.

Panna

A half hour drive from Khajuraho is the Panna National Park. Extending over 543 km, along the River Ken, the park has dense teak forests. Catch a glimpse of the elusive Tiger, Leopard, Wolf, Gharial, Blue Bull, Chinkara, Chowsingha and the Indian Fox. Take pictures, listen to birds, and wind up your journey in the lap of nature.

From World Heritage sites to legendary holy cities to scenic wonders to Tiger Reserves and National Parks, we have convenient tour plans for all. Log on to www.mptourism.com
