

ROBO DOC:
Dr Arvind Kumar
of AIIMS now prefers to perform his thymectomies
robotically

BANDEEP SINGH

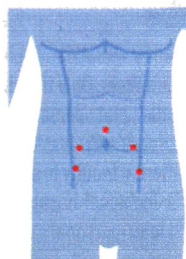

WHAT HAS CHANGED FOR THE SURGEON & FOR YOU

Looking down at a patient during surgery is passé. Monitoring on TV or via consoles is in. Surgery is more precise. Less trauma for patient.

Life gets simpler for both surgeon and patient as simple tools get camera-tipped and versatile robotic "hands" enter the OT

Minimally invasive is the mantra, as big incisions give way to "key-hole" surgery. Recovery is fast and easy.