

"Find out what you're good at from an early age and stick with it."

Since the age of nine Brett Lee has been wanting to get the baggy green cap and play international cricket for Australia. Realise your potential. We've asked some of Australia's most successful people how they got to where they are today. People like Kostya Tsyu, Geraldine Cox, Taylor & Khoo, Imogen Bailey and Brett Lee. As part of our achievers program they've all shared their stories as inspiration to help you achieve success in your own life. Join our online community and see the full stories at australlanetwork.com/achievers