THE BUZZ OF THE WEEK

Cabinet Secretary K.M. Chandrasekharan has asked secretaries of all ministries for details of developmental works and programmes undertaken during the past three years. Something to flaunt in case of sudden polls?

VOICES

"The BSP is a real estate agent and its president and Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Mayawati is a mafia queen."

Amar Singh, SP general secretary

"We in politics must realise life is short and the country is very big. Much still needs to be done in the sphere of development."

Sonia Gandhi, Congress president

"If Adam's Bridge had been called Ramar Bridge (Ram Sethu), we wouldn't have demanded that it be renamed. They are using Ramar's name to stall a massive project."

M. Karunanidhi, Tamil Nadu chief minister

"You cannot replace the seniors. With the amount of talent they have, the way they have proved themselves, you don't really have replacements for them."

Mahendra Singh Dhoni, one-day international captain

"I do what my heart tells me to, regardless of the price I have to pay. Pakistani actors who live there need to worry, not me."

Naseeruddin Shah, actor
