Creating Markets. Unlocking Value.™

*The World Economic Forum has announced creation of a new community of fast-growing companies destined to join the ranks of global multinationals in the next five to ten years. The Community of Global Growth Companies is a cross-industry global community of companies that have demonstrated potential to become leaders in global economy within five years. Among the 125 companies selected to be part of this community by World Economic Forum, 40% are from Asia, 26% from Europe, 20% from America, and 14% from Africa and the Middle East.
