

From left to right: Atul Mankad (who received the Award on behalf of his father late Vinoo Mankad), Naveen Kshatriya (Managing Director, Castrol India Limited), Sunil Gavaskar, Chedra Nayudu (who received the Award on behalf of her father Late Col CK Nayudu), G.R. Vishwanath, Bishen Singh Bedi, Nari Contractor, Chandu Borde, Ajit Wadekar, Sachin Tendulkar, Sourav Ganguly and Rahul Dravid.

Sachin and Rahul Dravid congratulating each other.

like Nari Contractor, Chandu Borde, Ajit Wadekar, Bishen Singh Bedi, B S Chandrasekhar, EAS Prasanna, GR Vishwanath and Sunil Gavaskar, rubbed shoulders with today's heroes – Rahul Dravid, Sachin Tendulkar and Sourav Ganguly while the future was represented by youngsters like Irfan Pathan, Robin Uthappa, Dinesh Karthik, S Sreesanth and Rohit Sharma.

Chandu Borde

As the inimitable Harsha Bhogle – the emcee for the evening – took the gathering down memory lane, there were stories and anecdotes which had the crowd enthralled – especially the young

"I cannot take credit for showing the world that Indian batsmen are capable of playing fast bowling. There were several Indian cricketing greats before me who had already done that."

Sunil Gavaskar

Sunil Gavaskar receiving the Award for Castrol Outstanding Cricketer of the Era

It was a star studded evening at the 10th Castrol Awards for Cricketing Excellence function held in Kochi on 2nd October 2007. The yesterday, today and tomorrow of Indian cricket were out in full strength to celebrate the 75th Anniversary of Indian test cricket and it was an evening to remember. Legends