

“Why our hockey players are orphaned and why our politicians are biased towards hockey, the national game?”

JOAQUIM CARVALHO, NATIONAL CHIEF COACH, HOCKEY

AT LAST

The Indian hockey team had its moment of glory in Chennai when it won the Seventh Asia Cup Hockey Championship in September soon after the government had struck off the game from its list of sports eligible for extra funding. Also, in September, chess wizard Viswanathan Anand (right) won the world championship at Mexico City. With this he not only overcame competition but also international politicking.
