

FAST TRACK

Narain Karthikeyan won the A1GP, the World Cup of motorsport, race in Zuhai, China, on December 16, 2007. The former Formula 1 driver created history by becoming the first Indian to achieve the feat. Karthikeyan symbolised the arrival of India on the world motor racing scene, with two other Indian drivers making waves and plans to host an F1 race in India by 2010.