

POSITIVE GAFFES

AIDS events became amusement shows. Minister for Women and Child Development Renuka Chowdhury (above) asked women not to trust their men and use a condom, while Kajol said AIDS was as easily curable as the common cold. Both women were soon looking for moral support as activists pounced on them.

NEON NYMPHETS

The guys got older and the gals younger. All of 16, Hansika Motwani went from Koi...Mil Gaya moppet to Aap ka Surroor nymphet, via a Telugu detour. Jiah Khan (right), 19, wooed a 64-year-old Amitabh Bachchan in Nishabd. Robbing the cradle became the best way to remain youthful.

“Sex education has been dragging the children towards crime and if this situation continues, they will become dreaded criminals.”

BABA RAMDEV, YOGA GURU

MUSIC MANIA

Beyonce (left) stopped over in Mumbai and shook her bootylicious body, while rock bands Scorpions and Mr Big headed for Shillong, India's rock capital, where 1,730 Indian guitarists made history by strumming Bob Dylan's Knocking on heaven's door together. What Amit Paul couldn't do for Shillong with Indian Idol, the western hemisphere rockers did with their guitar riffs and singalongs.

MAKEUNDER, MAKEOVER

Abhishek Bachchan went from hunky to chunky, transforming his svelte Bluff Master frame into the Guru heavyweight and not losing it for Jhoom Barabar Jhoom. Viveik Oberoi (above) got a new spelling and went from chunky to hunky in Shootout in Lokhandwala. Perhaps he should stick to playing mafia underlings.
