

THRICE LUCKY

Narendra Modi mobbed by supporters in Ahmedabad ahead of the vote-count for the Gujarat elections. The chief minister went on to win a 117-seat majority in the 182-seat assembly. After a controversial six-year reign, Gujaratis only want more of Modi with the BJP getting their fourth successive win in the state. After shaking off the shadow of Godhra and an internal rebellion, Modi is now seen as the magic bullet to bring the BJP back at the Centre.

