

MARKET MAYHEM

For the CPM Government in West Bengal, Nandigram will go down as its darkest hour. The ill-fated decision to take over land from farmers for industrial development took a tragic turn when its cadre unleashed a wave of terror, leaving behind graves, homeless people and orphans. (Below) The cadre 'celebrate' their victory in brazen motorcycle rallies with the party's hammer and sickle proudly and prominently displayed.

"We've to appeal to the Red Cross to take relief operations to Nandigram. The people are facing the brutality of CPI-M." MEDHA PATKAR, SOCIAL ACTIVIST
