

GENERAL MAYHEM

Pakistan's military dictator Pervez Musharraf was the focus of global attention and condemnation with his sacking of the judiciary, muzzling of the press, ejection of former prime minister Nawaz Sharif when he landed in the country and declaration of Emergency. Despite him shedding his uniform, naming a new army chief and declaring polls, his government's version of the events leading to Benazir Bhutto's death was exposed as a distortion of facts, damaging his image and putting his future in doubt.

AFP

"Pakistan has reached a dangerous point, and is undergoing an internal crisis. Whatever is happening is because of internal disturbances."

PERVEZ MUSHARRAF, PRESIDENT, PAKISTAN