

VITAL STATS

60% patients in India get acute coronary syndrome, compared to 40% in the developed world

60% heart attack victims in India reach hospital well after the Golden Hour—60 minutes from the onset of heart attack

One-fifth of heart attack victims in India get to hospital well after 12 hours when not much can be done

50 minutes on an average are wasted at hospitals in India, compared to 20-30 minutes in the developed world

75% patients bear hospital costs out of their own pocket. Insurance etc take care of only a tenth of the population.

9% major heart attack victims die in India, compared to about 6% patients in the developed world

Source: "Treatment and Outcomes of Acute Coronary Syndromes in India", The Lancet, 2008, by Drs Xavier, Pais, Yusuf, Prabhakaran, Joshi, Reddy et al to reach hospital, compared to 1.5 hours in the developed world