The Education Hub of India - II

Tamil Nadu – a state that was once known as treasure-chest of temples, as the resting place of tradition, has lately evolved into a much sought-after destination for quality education. All this, thanks to a State Government with an unswerving commitment towards education, and institutions that are focused on building a new generation of Indians who can handle even international challenges with élan. Saluting the selfless services offered by these educational institutions, India Today brings out a Special Impact Feature every year. This year too a select few institutions in the State have earned the privilege of being part of this endeavour. What follows is a brief discussion on these temples of learning and what sets them apart from their peers!
