

TWO YEARS OF TRAILBLAZING PERFORMANCE

The Tamilnadu Government under the Leadership of Dr. K. K. Kalyanaram

It has been two years since Dr. K. K. Kalyanaram took over as Chief Minister of Tamilnadu. During these two years, the state has made rapid strides in all sectors of the economy. Even as steps were taken to develop the industrial profile of the state, the government did not neglect the common man. In fact, a slew of measures were implemented to make life easier for the deprived sections of society, who have always formed the constituency closest to K. K. Kalyanaram's heart.

These measures have gone a long way to ameliorate the plight of the poor and lower middle class people, who have been hit hard by inflation. A broad based vision has also brought relief to other neglected segments like farmers, unemployed youth, woman and minorities, in the form of enlightened policies aimed to improve their lot.

■ Caring For the Common Man

The Government had announced, as part of its election plan, that rice would be provided at Rs. 2 per Kg. This promise was carried out soon after K. K. Kalyanaram took charge. It aims to benefit one crore and 86 lakh families. Pulses and cooking oil were also supplied at fair prices. The Noon Meal Scheme was modified to provide eggs to children, three times a week. Free house site pattas were given to 5 lakh and 40 thousand poor families. Free colour Tv's worth Rs. 1517 crore 87lakh 50 thousand, have been distributed to 62 lakh 80 thousand families. So far 11 lakh free gas connection worth Rs. 220 crore were given to poor, middle class families. Another 8 lakh families will get free gas stoves worth Rs. 160 crore, this year. Rs. 194 crore of marriage assistance was given to 11 lakh 30 thousand poor girls, each getting Rs. 15,000/- The assistance was increased to Rs. 20,000/- from this year.

The modified Noon Meal Scheme to provide eggs to children, 3 times a week

Elec