

NEXT is a "Change India" Program. It aims at changing the way an India consumer shops for electronics. Next Retail India Ltd with more than 300 outlets across 16 states with a presence in 145 towns spanning metros and large towns is India's Largest Electronics Retail Chain; a giant in the organized retailing of consumer electronics, home appliances and IT products.

NEXT has more than doubled its last year's turnover in the current financial year. Plans ahead are more ambitious with a targeted turnover of 1800 Crores for next year with 600 plus outlets.

Mint - Pitch - Synovate India Retail Brands Survey 2007* has recently rated NEXT as all India No. 1 in customer satisfaction in the consumer durables category.

In the Consumer Survey NEXT scores 1345 on satisfaction index which is way ahead of its closest competitor (with an index of 482). The Survey finding is an endorsement of NEXT leading the organized consumer durable retail sector and the destination point for consumers.

Next is a multi-brand multi-product outlet and stocks an entire range of consumer durables right from air-conditioners, LCD and Plasma TVs, home theatre systems, washing machines, refrigerators, microwaves to small home appliances. NEXT retails some of the most popular brands such as LG, Samsung, Sony, Electrolux, Kelvinator, Whirlpool, Onida, Philips, Kenstar, Videocon, Sansui, including its own brand under its stable. Next also stocks Xbox of Microsoft, computers & laptops of Acer, HCL, Lenovo, HP. Very shortly NEXT will be introducing imaging and accessories product categories.

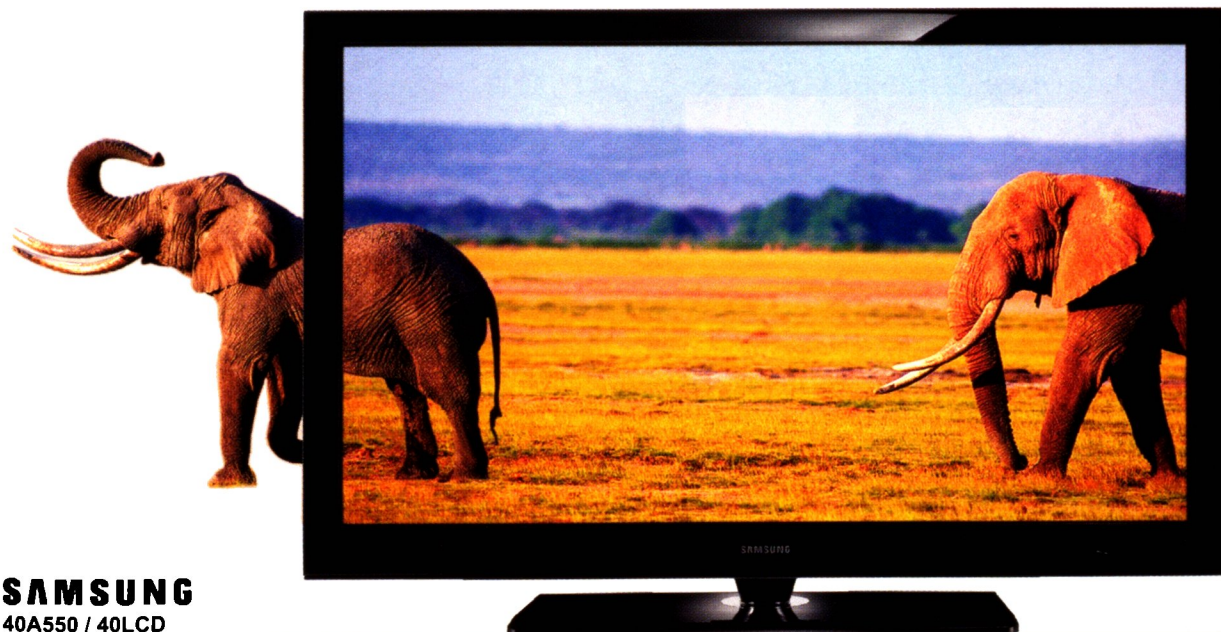

NEXT has always stood by its brand promise of "Best brands. Best bargains".

NEXT has opened up a world of choices for shopping enthusiasts (including homemakers), across all demographic and psychographic segments.

Plus, with the best brands that one comes across in NEXT, there are surprise gifts, Specialized prices, opening offers, holiday packages, zero percent finance options, attractive exchange offers and free home delivery within city limits. And in the private label it has an exclusive range of NEXT CTV's and in home appliances NEXT has recently introduced NEXT Sumo refrigerator, which is India's first 320 litres direct cool refrigerator.
