

How to burn the dance floor on your debut

1. For a first-timer at 'Garba' dance, all that's needed is to take your right foot ahead on the first beat, and smoothly lift and drag your left foot behind it.
2. Follow the rhythm and take half a swirl in one direction and swirl back to the same position, still moving ahead.
3. On the third beat, gracefully bend sideways, the arms coming together in sweeping gestures, up and down, left and right, and then clap.
4. Finally, make a complete swirl on the fourth beat, and then start again from step 1.
5. If the above steps don't work, simply start following the steps of the person in front of you!
