

INDIA IN DIVERSITY

Numbers once again illustrate the extremely diversified status of Indian states

11,970,763 is the number of households in Maharashtra owning television sets, the highest in India.

With 67,34,205 two-wheelers, Tamil Nadu tops the charts.

MAHARASHTRA	62,16,794
GUJARAT	51,62,167
UTTAR PRADESH	49,22,047
ANDHRA PRADESH	45,43,283

74.8%

of urban Delhi households spend more than Rs 930 per month per person which is the highest for any state in the country.

1,40,089 is the number of civil policemen in Maharashtra, the highest in India, followed by Uttar Pradesh with 1,19,893 cops.

With 89% literacy, Mizoram is the most literate state in the country. What's more, 83 per cent of the children over 10 years of age in the state have completed their education.

With 1,94,711 cases, Madhya Pradesh takes the lead in having the largest number of cognisable crimes recorded in any state in the country.

MOST URBANISED STATES

DELHI	94%
PUDUCHERRY	68%
GOA	54%
MIZORAM	51%
TAMIL NADU	50%

% of population in urban areas

LEAST URBANISED STATES

HIMACHAL PRADESH	11%
BIHAR	11%
SIKKIM	12%
ASSAM	14%
ORISSA	16%

% of population in urban areas

MOST POPULATED STATES

UTTAR PRADESH	18,91,00,815
MAHARASHTRA	10,36,18,034
BIHAR	9,21,51,647
WEST BENGAL	8,67,40,348
ANDHRA PRADESH	8,13,20,661

LEAST POPULATED STATES

SIKKIM	6,33,133
MIZORAM	10,43,179
PUDUCHERRY	11,41,184
ARUNACHAL PRADESH	12,88,315
GOA	15,69,301

Illustrations by PRASHANT CHOUDHARY