

LEADERS AND LAGGARDS IN THE GDP RACE

States/UTs	1999-2008
CHANDIGARH	11.9%
NAGALAND	9.8%
MANIPUR	9.4%
GUJARAT	8.8%
UTTARAKHAND	8.7%
HARYANA	8.7%
CHHATTISGARH	8.3%
JHARKHAND	8.3%
TRIPURA	8%
SIKKIM	7.8%
ORISSA	7.6%
DELHI	7.4%
ARUNACHAL PRADESH	7.4%
INDIA	7.3%
HIMACHAL PRADESH	7.2%
ANDHRA PRADESH	7%
KERALA	6.8%
MAHARASHTRA	6.3%
GOA	6.3%
MIZORAM	6.2%
WEST BENGAL	6%
KARNATAKA	6%
MEGHALAYA	5.8%
TAMIL NADU	5.6%
ASSAM	5.5%
BIHAR	5.3%
ANDAMAN & NICOBAR ISLANDS	5.1%
RAJASTHAN	4.7%
PUNJAB	4.5%
UTTAR PRADESH	4.5%
JAMMU AND KASHMIR	4.4%
PUDUCHERRY	4%
MADHYA PRADESH	3.5%

The figures are growth trend estimates derived from the latest data from CSO

1,46,20,345 is the number of girl children enrolled in schools in Uttar Pradesh.

With 99.7% child births assisted by trained health personnel, Kerala has the best record in terms of national family health services.

Chandigarh with 777 females per 1,000 males has the worst sex ratio in the country, followed by Delhi at 821 and Haryana at 861.

At Rs 4,11,035 crore, Maharashtra has the highest gross state domestic product in the country.

* denotes the GSDP at current prices

TOP FIVE IN DEPOSITS (Rs lakh) (In scheduled commercial banks)

MAHARASHTRA	6,54,63,687
DELHI	3,36,06,705
UTTAR PRADESH	1,81,75,249
KARNATAKA	1,71,22,947
TAMIL NADU	1,62,42,616

With 39.9% and 34.8% of their population below the poverty line, Orissa and Jharkhand respectively figure at the top of the poverty list, while Punjab along with Jammu and Kashmir sits pretty with the lowest poverty rates of 5.2% and 4.2% respectively.

