BOLPUR, WEST BENGAL

Electing Chatterjee six times since 1989 has not made a difference to Bolpur. Even within Left-ruled West Bengal it ranks number 32.

tenure either. Many of the MPs have had multiple terms. Bolpur in West Bengal has elected the 10-term MP Somnath Chatterjee, the Speaker of the Lok Sabha, six times since 1989. In all these years, it was the CPI(M) which was in power in the state. Yet despite his iconic image, the constituency ranks 319 out of 543 seats. Latur in Maharashtra elected Home Minister Shivraj Patil seven times from 1980 to 1999. He lost this seat to Rupatai Patil of BJP in 2004. Of these 24 years, the Congress was in power in the state for 20 years and at the Centre for 16 years. Yet Latur ranks 220. If there is an exception to
