

THE CULTURAL CORE

What is the ground beneath a nation's feet? The aesthetic heritage that keeps its past alive, allow

CHHATRAPATI SHIVAJI MAHARAJ
VASTU SANGRAHALAYA, MUMBAI

CHAMBERS OF ANTIQUITY

Within the four walls of the Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Vastu Sangrahalaya is an Aladdin's cave of wonders. The graceful edifice that houses the museum has a time-honoured role as a cultural landmark in Mumbai. Its sizeable collection of over 50,000 paintings and artefacts includes Akbar's autographed personal armour dating to 1581 A.D., an array of Harappan pottery and armour from the Indus Valley and the second largest collection of miniature paintings in India. Formerly known as the