

Sustainable Development in an Uncertain World

BUSINESS TODAY-DUPONT SUSTAINABILITY FORUM

Will the growing economic uncertainty around the world prompt corporations to cut back on their commitments to sustainable development? Will the need to cut costs and appease shareholders in difficult times prompt companies to see sustainable development spend as costs? Can they find win-win deals?

Hear corporate chieftains discuss and deliberate on, "Sustainable Development in an Uncertain World" and be part of a better world.

DuPont Solutions for a Better,
Safer, Healthier World

Come together on August 21st, 2008 at New Delhi.

Entry by invitation only.
For more information contact us at
bt@intoday.com

business today
FOR MANAGING TOMORROW

The miracles of science™