

THE HEALTH EFFECT

From a medical school providing world class faculty to a visionary's hospital for free eye care, this is heal

RUMOUR HAD IT People feared that AIIMS conducted research on humans. "Initially the practice of medicine was very ethical. The emphasis on diagnosis was based on extensive investigation. That's why the public thought that research was being conducted on human beings. This obviously was not true," says former AIIMS director, P.K. Dave.

COMEBACK MAN Dr P.Venugopal is the Cinderella Man of medicine. He was removed in November 2007 from the post of AIIMS director after the government passed a legislation limiting the tenure to a maximum of five years or till the age of 65. He fought back and was reinstated after completing 49 years in May 2008.
