Media and Entertainment

There is a boom seen in the media and entertainment sector after July 2008. Those acting as political agents will gain. This is due to Venus, alongwith various other planets, being placed 9th from Ketu.

Sports

Mars, being the sign of Gemini, is 11th from transiting Saturn and 7th from transiting Jupiter. Mars, being the indicator of Sports, I believe this would be an above average year for people involved in sports, achievement-wise and financially. There could also be lot of changes which will be for the good.

Conclusion

Taking the country's varshaphal chart and the transit, one can conclude that after June 2008, the stocks and all related factors would be under pressure and there would be rise in fundamentalism. There will be tremendous pressure on the government after July 2008. Also in the new year chart, 2008, Saturn, the 10th Lord in Rahu Ketu indicates pressures and problems for the government. As explained, despite all the nation will cope up.

and it has the involvement of the 7th house which means that external forces would play an important role in pulling down the stock / capital market after July 2008.

Politics

There would be stability till Mercury is there, but with Ketu antardasha starting from July, there is likely to be an increase in fundamentalism and a rise in communal disturbances. The government will also be under pressure during this period.

As per the transit chart, Mars at present is retrograde in Gemini, it transits in Cancer in May and in Leo from 21st June where it conjuncts Saturn. This could result in war like situation. Saturn Ketu conjunction in Leo could put the Government under tremendous pressure. These transits are creating situations of fall of Government.

International

After July 2008 there are indications that there will be enhanced spy and secret activities against the
